

A4 Label Templates. V1.

All Rights Reserved.

NOTE. A4Labels is not a graphics program. You must prepare your graphics elsewhere. A4Labels can then be used to add them into a job using a labels template for printing.

INSTALLATION:

- Download the application from the A4LabelTemplates.com.au web site and save to your harddrive.
- Unzip the file to a new folder. (If you download the .exe version double clicking on the file will unzip the file for you – choose UNZIP.)
- Double click on the application install file, setup (setup.exe)

You must be connected to the internet during the installation steps.

The install program will lead you through the steps to successfully install the program.

You will need to read and accept the Terms and Conditions during the installation process.

Some Configuration Settings information from your PC will be gathered by us during the installation process.

- After the installation is complete you can start the program from your MS Windows START menu.
- The first time you run the file you will be invited to enter the KEY that you have been sent by email.

Ensure that the product is suitable to your needs before purchasing or registering your purchased Key.

Once you register your purchased Key you will NOT be eligible for a refund.

We suggest that you first use the Trial version.

With the Trial version you can use the product indefinitely. It puts a watermark placed over the images.

- To run the program after trialing you will need to purchase a license and register your product key.
You will be able to use the product fully. There is no watermark placed over the images.
- Your licence entitles you to load this program onto one PC at a time. In the event that you need to move or re-install your copy of the program on to a new PC you can. You must be connected to the internet at the time and UNREGISTER your copy. You can install on a maximum of 3 PCs. To run multiple copies you will need to purchase a copy for each PC.

SYSTEM:

- This program is designed to run on desktop and laptop PCs with MS Windows XP or higher operating systems (but excluding tablet and cloud based systems such as Windows 8 RT).
- It requires the MS .NET Framework 4.0 & MS Windows Installer 4.5 to be installed on your PC. It is usually already on PCs running MS Windows 7 and higher. MS .NET Framework & MS Windows Installer 4.5 are free and can be downloaded from the A4LabelTemplates web site. See the Download page.

SUPPORT:

- While we have tried to make A4LabelTemplates as easy to use as possible, this installation includes
- a User Guide
- a Quick Reference Guide
- a guide to improving your label printing using Bleed
- a link to the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) on the website

These can be accessed directly from the program using the Help menu.

And, the A4LabelTemplate web site has a Frequently Asked Questions tab that is regularly updated.

NOTE

This program does not create graphics. You must create your graphics outside the program using an appropriate graphics software package. You can then attach the graphic files to Jobs defined in the A4LabelTemplates program.

LICENSE TERMS:

- Your License is re-produced here.

Trading as A4 Label Template Systems

The software product License for A4 Label Templates (the “Software”) you have purchased is subject to the following License terms and conditions.

Please read the following License before you complete installing and commence use of the Software. If you do not agree to the terms and conditions of this License, you may return the entire product to your supplier for a full refund provided that you have not completed the installation and registration process and do so within seven (7) days from purchase.

SINGLE COPY SOFTWARE LICENSE

THIS IS A SINGLE COPY SOFTWARE LICENSE granted by Harris and Monks trading as A4 Label Template Systems, (the "Company"), a company incorporated under the laws of Victoria, AUSTRALIA. The Software provided to you is licensed to you as the end user. It is not sold. It remains the property of the Company at all times.

1. The Software is copyrighted material. Once you have paid the required single copy License fee, you may use the Software for as long as you like provided you do not violate the copyright and if you follow these simple rules:

When purchasing the Software you must provide an email address which will be used as your registered user name. The software relies on connecting to an internet service to get authorization to function.

You may use the Software on any computer for which it is designed so long as not more than one (1) person uses it at any one time and it is installed on only one computer at a time using the registered user name for identification. You must purchase additional copies of the Software if more than one (1) person will be using it at the same time on one (1) or more computers.

The Software is copy protected. You may make copies of the Software for backup purposes, and all such copies, together with the originals, must be kept in your possession or control. You may only transfer the Software to another user if you transfer the originals and all copies retaining no copies for yourself.

You may not tamper with or make any changes or modifications to the Software, and you may not translate, decompile, disassemble, create derivative works or otherwise reverse engineer the Software. You must not vary, delete or obscure any notices of proprietary rights or any product identification or restrictions on or in the Software. You may not rent, lease or sublicense, sell, assign, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of the Software. You may not use it on a computer network unless only one (1) person can use it at a time.

You may install the Software on a different computer for the purpose of replacing or updating the computer. By unregistering on the original PC and installing and/or executing the software on a subsequent computer you permanently revoke all previous installations and understand that it will not function on the previous computer again.

If this copy of the Software is an update to an earlier version of the Software, it is provided to you on an exchange basis. The acceptance of an updated copy of the Software shall result in the voluntary termination of your earlier License and of all rights to use or transfer the earlier version of the Software to another.

2. Use of this Software for business solicitations and/or mailings of any kind may be contrary to the laws of Australia or other governments, or the rules and regulations of certain governing bodies, and the Company disclaims any liability for any improper use or misuse of the Software.
3. In no case shall the Company accept any liability for any damage, loss or cost incurred by the Purchaser or user of the Software as a result of installing or use of the Software or caused by computer viruses.
4. The Company does not warrant that the Software will work in combination with any hardware or software applications provided by a third party, that the operation of the software will be uninterrupted or error free or that any defects in the software are correctable or will be corrected.
5. This License constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between the parties and supersedes any prior agreement or understanding whether oral or written, relating to the subject of this License. This License may only be modified by a written agreement signed by the Company.
